Dear Counsel:

Please accept this letter as a confirmation of today's telephonic status conference pertaining to the above-captioned matter. Counsel has advised the undersigned that the parties are working towards ensuring compliance with Judge Arpert's Court Order of May 23, 2019. I have advised Judge Arpert of our conference and that all parties are continuing to work diligently to ensure that the issues that were raised, and since ensued, in the Order of May 23, are being tended to. Should any issues arise in connection with your ability to comply with said Order, I expect counsel to advise the undersigned immediately via letter so that we can schedule an in-person conference to resolve same.

I thank counsel for its cooperation and courtesy during our recent call. Please keep me advised should any new issues develop which require my attention.

Very truly yours,

/s/Jose L. Linares
